

Biodata:

Craig Smith is founding Chair of the Department of Global Affairs at Kyoto University of Foreign Studies. He is Advisor to the Department of Student Affairs for experiential learning projects. He has often participated in overseas curricular, co-curricular, and extra-curricular academic events and community-engagement projects with university students. He is a founding Faculty Advisor of the Japan University English Model United Nations and an Advisor of the Asia Youth Forum. He is particularly interested in the ways that participation in low-cost, short-term international events may promote vocabulary learning by encouraging self-regulated learning.
