

POSITION: Japan Women's University is accepting applications for two part-time native speaker positions for the 2014 Academic Year:

Wednesday: Business English (Elective one semester course; 1:00-2:30) and Kiso Eigo II (Required one semester communication course for non-English major freshmen, 2:40-4:10).

Saturday: English Conversation (One year required course for English major freshmen, 9:00-10:30) and Kiso Eigo II (Required one semester communication course for non-English major freshmen, 10:40-12:10).

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

Minimum 2 years experience teaching English at a Japanese university.

Minimum 2 academic publications.

PAY & BENEFITS: Pay is per koma for 12 months, commensurate with age and teaching experience.

EMPLOYER INFO: Please send (by post or E-mail; *No phone calls, please) a cover letter indicating which position you are applying for and a complete CV, which includes the following: your name and address (both in English and Japanese); date of birth; age; nationality and visa status; a recent photo with signature; all full-time and part-time work experience (*For those with current full-time positions, please include the name of the faculty to which you belong in Japanese); and a complete list of academic publications and presentations to:

Dr. Douglas E. Forster
Department of English
Japan Women's University
Mejirodai 2-8-1
Bunkyo-ku, Tokyo 112-8681
forster@fc.jwu.ac.jp

DEADLINE: Ongoing until positions are filled.