Foreword

Projects for 2014

Hisatake Jimbo
President of JACET
(Waseda University)

Our objective this year is to bring the following projects to fruition.

1. Annual Convention

This year the JACET 53rd International Convention will be held August 28 – 30 at Hiroshima City University. The theme of this convention will be “Fostering English Communicative Competence for Peace and Friendship.” The Convention will feature three keynote speakers: Dr. George Jacobs (James Cook University), Prof. Kip A. Cates (Tottori University), and Prof. Craig Smith (Kyoto University of Foreign Studies). The Convention will feature a wide range of symposia and presentations. I hope many JACET members and affiliates will attend this conference.

2. Seminars

The 41st JACET Summer Seminar will be held at Kusatsu Skyland Hotel, Gunma Prefecture, August 18-21, 2014. The main lecturer will be Dr. Roy Lyster (McGill University) addressing the theme: “CLIL and Content-based Language Teaching: New global perspectives of bilingualism and immersion.” Two invited speakers will be Dr. Makoto Ikeda (Sophia University) and Dr. Carol Inugai-Dixon (International Baccalaureate Organization). About ten other participants will present their short papers.

The next English Education Seminar is tentatively scheduled for October 11 or 12 at Will Aichi, Nagoya. The tentative theme is “Integrated English Teaching from Elementary School to University.”

3. Publications

JACET JOURNAL No. 59 is scheduled to be published in January, 2015. The first number of JACET International Convention Selected Papers will be published in August, 2014. As for JACET Newsletter, No. 191 will be on our website in July, 2014, No. 192 will be published in December, 2014 and No. 193 will be on our website in March, 2015.

4. Local Chapter Activities

Each JACET chapter will also be very active hosting its annual convention and publishing an annual journal and regular newsletters. I hope each chapter will successfully fulfill its own mission.

5. Collaboration with other academic associations

JACET has been pursuing collaborative relationships with other academic associations both domestically and internationally. We have invited many representatives of associate English teaching organizations abroad and domestic English-related associations to our annual conventions in the past. I hope many will be able to attend our upcoming annual convention. As a new initiative in 2010, we began to collaborate with academic associations of other languages in Japan. We will pursue this endeavor and try to expand this initiative by collaborating with the associations of other disciplines this year.

I hope 2014 will be another fruitful year for our organization and all JACET members.

Report from the JACET Headquarters

Secretary General:
Naoko Osuka
(Meiji University)

JACET was launched as a general public association, or Ippan Shadan Hojin, on April 1, 2013. One year of success has almost passed, and I would like to thank the members of JACET for all of your support and understanding. There have been numerous conferences, seminars and other events hosted by JACET and its chapters this year. One of the most important events was the JACET 52nd International Convention, which was held at Kyoto University from August 30 to September 1. A record number of people, more than 1,200, attended this convention. It featured a range of lectures, symposiums, presentations and workshops, including the special poster session program titled “College English Education for Global Human Resource Development,” which 85 institutions or individual members participated in and attracted many attendees’ attention. A general meeting of representatives was held at Kyoto University on the day before the annual convention, and another one was held at JACET Office in December.

2014 will be another important year for JACET members. The JACET 53rd International Convention will be held at Hiroshima City University from August 28 to 30, under the theme of “Fostering English Communicative Competence for Peace and Friendship.” Plenary speakers will include Prof. Craig Smith (Kyoto University of Foreign Studies), Prof. Kip A. Cates (Tottori University), and Dr. George Jacobs (James Cook University). I believe it will be an exciting and stimulating event again this year, and hope many members will be able to attend. In October, an election for association members or shain will be conducted. Details will be announced as soon as they are ready.

As of December 1, 2013, JACET membership counted 2,708. To make the year 2014 even more productive and successful for JACET, I would like to ask for your continuous support.
