Announcement of Teaching Position in English for Liberal Arts Program

Outline	International Christian University (ICU) is a private, bilingual liberal arts university that provides a first-class liberal arts education to a culturally and religiously diverse international community of students, faculty and staff. ICU's educational mission is based on Christian and democratic principles. ICU has approximately 3,000 students and over 150 faculty members from Japan and overseas. The university is located on a wooded campus in the suburbs of Tokyo. We are pleased to announce an open search for a full-time faculty position (tenured instructor) in English for Liberal Arts Program (ELA). The candidate must be a native speaker of Japanese who has the ability to teach courses in English. The ELA is an English language program with both content-based and skill-based instruction that incorporates issues related to the College of Liberal Arts (International Studies, Humanities, Education, Social Science, and Natural Science). It places special emphasis on developing critical thinking and academic writing skills, and improving overall English skills of first- and second-year students. The successful applicant is expected to teach RCA (Reading and Content Analysis), AS (Academic Skills) and RW (Research Writing) in the ELA.
