

Full-time Faculty Positions at Komazawa University

Komazawa University Department of English, Faculty of Arts and Sciences, invites applications for the following tenured positions.

1. Full-time Assistant Professor (Jokyō), Lecturer (Kōshi), Associate Professor, or Professor, depending on qualifications and experience.
2. Number of positions: 2
3. Starting date: 1 April 2019
4. Duties and tasks:
  - (i) Teaching English as a Foreign Language at the Komazawa Campus.
  - (ii) Attending meetings, participating in extra-curricular activities and performing administrative and examination-related tasks undertaken by faculty members.
  - (iii) Translating, proofreading and editing in-house documents.
  - (iv) Designing, developing and managing the Department's educational curriculum.
5. Salary and benefits:
  - (i) Salary in accordance with Komazawa University regulations.
  - (ii) Pension and health insurance (The Promotion and Mutual Aid Corporation for Private Schools of Japan).
  - (iii) Employment insurance.
6. Qualifications (as of 1 April 2019, all of the following must be satisfied):
  - (i) PhD or MA/MSc/MPhil with equivalent academic achievements.
  - (ii) Minimum of one year experience in teaching English to English learners at university or high school level.
  - (iii) Sufficient English proficiency to conduct classes in English.
  - (iv) Sufficient Japanese proficiency to participate in a variety of departmental activities (Level N2 or above of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) is desirable).
7. Application documents:
  - (i) A recent curriculum vitae (1 copy of A4-sized paper, single-sided printing, free format, no page limit). The following information must be included: name; date of birth; contact details (e-mail, postal address and telephone number); education (including overseas study experience); work experience (for academic and teaching experience, specify full-time or part-time, main duties, and types of classes taught); and results of language proficiency tests (scores obtained more than two years ago are acceptable).

- (ii) A list of academic contributions (1 copy of A4-sized paper, single-sided printing, free format, no page limit). Classify contributions into the following four categories and present the essential information designated for each category (the information may be in any order):
- (a) All books and academic articles (may be limited to those published in the last 10 years with the sum total if the number is large):
Books: include the title, author(s), publisher, page numbers and publication year.
Academic articles: include the title, author(s), journal, volume, first and last pages, whether refereed or not and publication year.
  - (b) Academic presentations and talks (may be limited to a representative selection with the sum total if the number is large): include the title, date, conference name and venue.
  - (c) Grants: include the grant name, project title, role performed, funding period and total amount.
  - (d) Others: include any other contributions that the applicant considers as significant for the screening process.
- (iii) An essay on the applicant's research experience, interests and plans for future research (1 copy not exceeding one A4-sized page, free format).
Note: Non-native speakers of Japanese must write this essay in Japanese, while native speakers of Japanese must write it in English.
- (iv) Three copies of one representative publication, either offprints or photocopies accepted. (A few chapters excerpted from a doctoral dissertation may be submitted as one publication.)
- (v) A summary of the representative publication (iv) (1 copy not exceeding one A4-sized page, free format).
- (vi) An essay on the applicant's hopes and aspirations for teaching English as a foreign language at Komazawa University* by incorporating his/her perspective on teaching English and practical experience of teaching English such as class activities, teaching methods and academic assessment (1 copy not exceeding one A4-sized page, free format).
* The Department of English provides both required and elective courses for students in their first through fourth years with various majors and English proficiency levels.
Note: Non-native speakers of Japanese must write this essay in English, while native speakers of Japanese must write it in Japanese.

Interested applicants are requested to send their application materials via post to:

Department of Languages Office, Research Building No. 1, Komazawa University
1-23-1 Komazawa
Setagaya-ku, Tokyo
154-8525 JAPAN

Please ensure to send your application by registered mail (ippan kakitome or kan-i kakitome) and mark it "Application Materials Enclosed (Sogo Kyoiku Kenkyu-bu, English)" in red on the front of the envelope.
Application deadline: All applications must be received by 8 June 2018.

8. Selection process and notification of result:

After screening the applications, the Department will inform short-listed candidates of the results by the beginning of July. Short-listed candidates will then be asked to present a demonstration lesson and will be interviewed in both Japanese and English at a later date in July 2018.

Note: After receipt of initial application materials, requests may follow for additional items.

9. Contact details:

For any queries regarding this application process, please e-mail:

eigo_jinji@komazawa-u.ac.jp

Note: Any queries regarding the selection process will not be entertained.

10. Additional information:

- (i) Incomplete applications will not be processed.
- (ii) Submitted documents will not be returned.
- (iii) Application documents and personal information provided will be used for the sole purpose of this recruitment process.