Aug. 27/ 13:30-14:30/ AC348

AILA East-Asia Symposium

Applied Linguistics in East Asia: Emerging Issues

<Panelists> Ahn, Kyungja (Seoul National U. of Education, ALAK)
Sun, Youzhong (Beijing Foreign Studies U., CELEA)
Sato, Takehiro (Nagoya U. of Foreign Studies, JACET)
<Panelist / Moderator> Oda, Masaki (Tamagawa University)

The Presidents of the three AILA affiliates in East Asia (ALAK, CELEA, JACET) meet to exchange ideas for potential topics for future AILA East Asia Symposia.

Kyungja Ahn is a professor in the Department of English Education at Seoul National University of Education (SNUE), Korea. She currently serves as the 20th president (2025-2026) of the Applied Linguistics Association of Korea (ALAK). Her research interests include second language teacher education, teaching and assessing L2 learners, L2 curriculum and education policy, and technology-mediated L2 learning and teaching.

SUN Youzhong, Professor of Beijing Foreign Studies University. Director of China MOE Steering Committee for Undergraduate Programs in Foreign Languages and Literatures, President of China English Language Education Association, Chair of the Intercultural Communication Studies Committee of the Translators Association of China, Director of BFSU National Research Institute for Foreign Language Teaching Materials. His research interests include foreign language education, intercultural Studies, international communication and American studies.

Sato, Takehiro is JACET's 10th President. He is an EFL writing and intercultural communication Professor at Nagoya University of Foreign Studies. His academic interests lie in writing education, applying sociocultural theory to EFL learning, and plurilingualism. He has a PhD from Nagoya University, Japan.

Masaki Oda is the immediate past president of JACET. He is Professor of Applied Linguistics at Tamagawa University and Executive Director of Higher Education at Tamagawa University & Academy (Tamagawa Gakuen). His academic interests include socio-political aspects of language teaching and the relationship between language teaching and media discourse. He has a Ph.D. from Georgetown University.