

Part-time English Teaching Position at Chiba University

Chiba University is seeking an instructor with native level English proficiency for the courses below.

[Type of work] Part-time (Fixed term. Renewal each year.)

[Number of positions] A few positions

[Details]

Classes

- face-to-face on Nishi Chiba Campus
- first-year and second-year compulsory courses
- either Writing, Interaction, Discussion, Presentation or English for Specific Fields

Schedule

Second semester (October 1st to January 27th)

Wednesday	8:50 – 10:20	English for Specific Fields
Wednesday	10:30 – 12:00	Writing
Wednesday	12:50 – 14:20	Presentation
Wednesday	14:30 – 16:00	Discussion
Friday	8:50-10:20	Presentation
Friday	10:30-12:00	Interaction

[Date of appointment]

October 1st, 2024 (or as soon as possible after this date)

[Place of work] Nishi-Chiba Campus

[Qualifications] Applicants should meet all of the following requirements:

- (1) Practical English teaching qualification such as CELTA / DELTA / TEFL
- (2) Master's degree in a field related to English teaching
- (3) Ability to teach classes in English
- (4) Experience in teaching at a university or junior college (including part-time)

[Application documents]

- (1) One copy of curriculum vitae in English (any format) with a photograph attached.
- (2) One copy of educational and research achievements (any format).
- (3) Contact details for at least one academic referee.

[Compensation]

- (1) The salary and commuting allowance are based on the university's rules and regulations.
- (2) Retirement age: 65

[Application deadline]

September 25th, 2024

* Late applications may be considered.

To apply, please send the application documents to Prof. Sarah Morikawa at < smorikawa@faculty.chiba-u.jp >

Requests for further information can be sent to the same address.